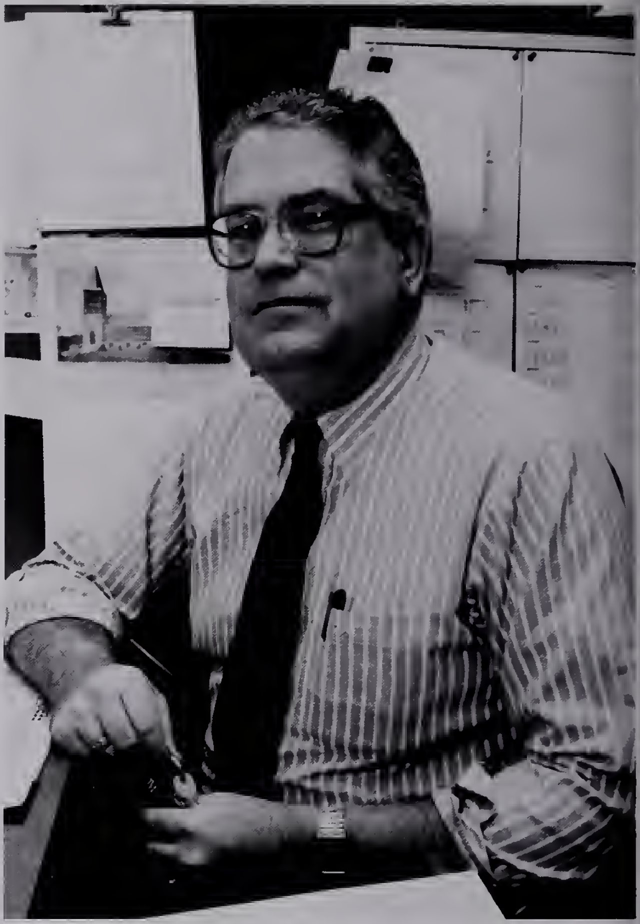
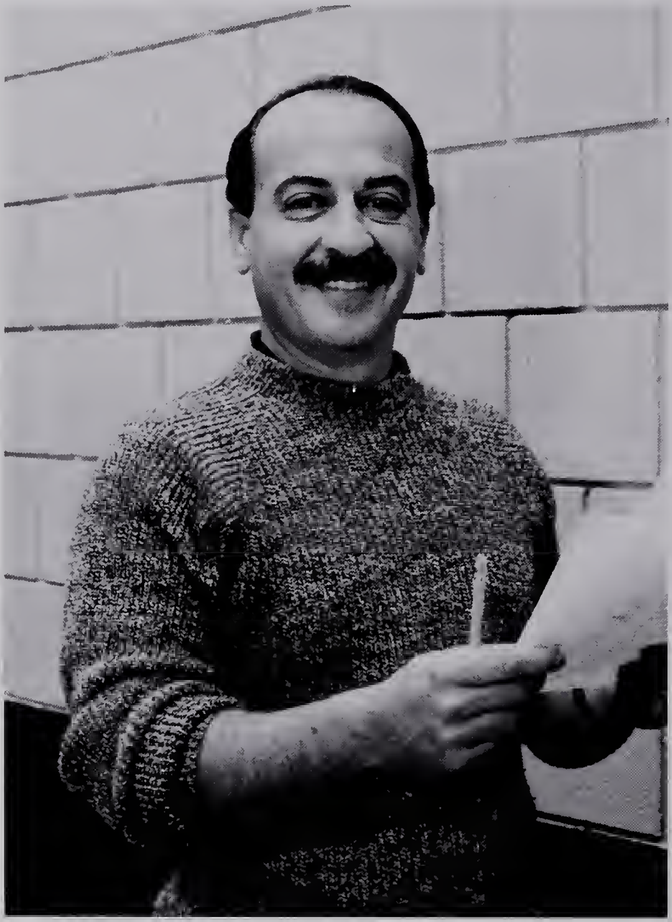
Special Thanks To . . .

Mr. Moore . . . what can we say? You're the greatest! We missed you so much when you were out of school because of the car accident. We were so glad that you were able to come back for the end of the year. We owe you a million for handling the ''international relations'' problem and ''senior section'' problem — you know what we mean! There's no way we could ever repay you for all the flack you've taken on our account and for all the times you've allowed us to interrupt your class. Because of all your help and guidance, as well as the leniency you've given us in putting together our yearbook, we, the 1993 yearbook staff, co-dedicate this book to you. Thank you! ♥



Mr. Moore



Mr. Salemi

Mr. Salemi! You are another favorite of the staff! Whether you know it, or not, we are deeply indebted to you for all your help during Mr. Moore's absence. I can't count the number of times one of us interrupted your class to get the receipt book, or keys, or pictures from you — and not once did you get upset. You always had a smile on your face and were willing to help us out with anything, from bounced checks to irate faculty members! Mr. Salemi, we hope that you will be pleasantly surprised when you see this — it is a token of our appreciation for all of your kindness and the extra effort you put in to insure that the yearbook ran smoothly without Mr. Moore. Mr. Salemi, we would like to co-dedicate this year's book to you. Thanks! ♥

MARCHING BAND

The band had quite a great season, but it began on a down note when they were disqualified at their first competition because of too many people. By moving into division III, the situation was remedied — now the band could have more people and compete with larger teams. Though the new competition was tough, Methuen fared well, placing fourth out of fifteen bands in the New England area. Besides competing, the band played during half-time at the football games. They provided comic relief in addition to musical entertainment during the Superbowl Game — the muddy field caused people to go slipping and sliding everywhere, while the cold temperature and rain froze the instruments and made them sound out of tune!

COLORGUARD

From the start of their season in August, the goal of each of the 17 members of the colorguard was to have a winning season. The long and demanding late night and early morning practices paid off when the colorguard earned first place in every competition they entered. The squad, captained by Amy Grelle and Tracey Bellevance, kept their spirits high, even through such setbacks as a disqualification due to a mix-up in numbers (one extra person). The season climaxed on November 1 at Marching Band Finals at Boston University. For the first time in 12 years the colorguard won the championship title — a perfect way to top off an unforgettable year.

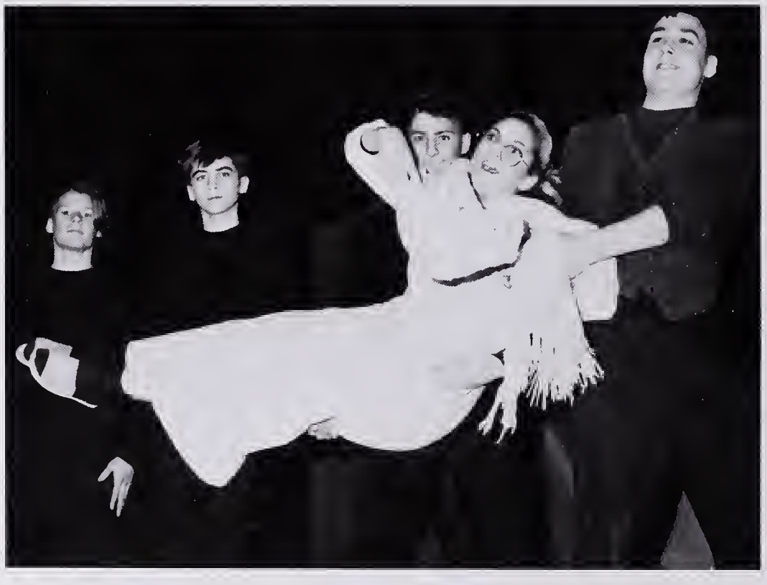
PIPPIN



Mike Hoffman, Bryant Clark, David Slipp, and John Cahoon carry Julie Aziz off the stage

Students put on a production of the musical "Pippin" on Feb. 4 in front of a sold-out crowd. The musical, directed by Mr. Gori, was about Pippin (played by Sal Delmonte), the son of Charlemagne (Lenny Bretton) and his struggle to "find" himself. In an effort to do so, he experiments with sex, power, and other vices, only to discover that just being ordinary is okay. Other characters were played by Sabrina Autieri (Catherine), Julie Aziz (Granny), John Cahoon (Louis), Heather Mancini (Fastrada), Julie Juknavorian and Catherine Debrocke (Dancers), and Ben Hellman (Narrator).

In thinking of our senior class, one thing I said comes to mind. We were asked by a reporter to sum up our year in one sentence. Without thinking I looked up and said, ''We were all truly individuals that still made up a whole.'' This means that none of us were afraid to show our true colors and be who we wanted to be. When the situation necessitated it, however, we could still pull together as a group. But we weren't just a group . . . we were the class of 1993. I have enjoyed being your president this past year and I look forward to seeing you in the future. Brian J. Collins ~ Class President ~ 1993

YEARBOOK

Finally . . . it's finished! What a year! Working on this yearbook has taught me so much. I'd just like to thank Mr. Moore for all of his help and the passes out of 6th period study! Then there's Beth — what can I say? You were the ''key'' to this yearbook! Also, thank you to the entire yearbook staff for all your ideas. Your thoughts and insights helped to make this yearbook the best one yet! I hope that in twenty years we will be able to open this book and remember these special times we all shared. I hope you enjoy this book as much as I enjoyed putting it together — Tracey Sunderland ~ Layout editor

I really hope you like the book — we really put our hearts into it. I would like to thank Jen Osgood for drawing the cover; Theresa Piazza for the design of the divider pages; Chrisann Sevoian for writing the farewell; the whole staff, and everyone who gave us pictures to use. Tracey, I owe you a million thanks . . . for doing such a great job and for putting up with me! Oh, and thank goodness the ''international relations'' problem is all over with . . . yah? To paraphrase Brian Collins, I hope you will find a place for this yearbook in your hearts and not just on your shelves. Beth Ferland ~ Editor

Haverhill 30-0
Wilmington 22-6
Lawrence 36-12
Lowell 30-8
Central 32-24
Dracut 42-0
Reading (Superbowl) 26-19

Despite losing two games early in the season, the Methuen Rangers didn't lose hope. The team, coached by Larry Klimas, put in a superb effort and rallied to win their last seven games of the season. The team then went on to capture the M.V.C. title and qualify for the Superbowl game on Thanksgiving Day in front of 2,000 rain-soaked fans. The crowd was dazzled by the team's 42-0 win over Dracut and a record-breaking 103yd punt return carry by Craig McKenzie which resulted in a touchdown. In the minds of the players, the memory of the Thanksgiving Day game will only be overshadowed by one other — the Superbowl.

This year's team had several players that won All-Conference, All-Scholastic, and All-Star honors. They included: Mark Graziano, Joe Cerami, Jason Danella, Joe Sanguldoce, and Charlie Towne. Joe Cerami was also named the Defensive Player of the Year. In the eyes of the town though, everyone on this year's team was a winner.

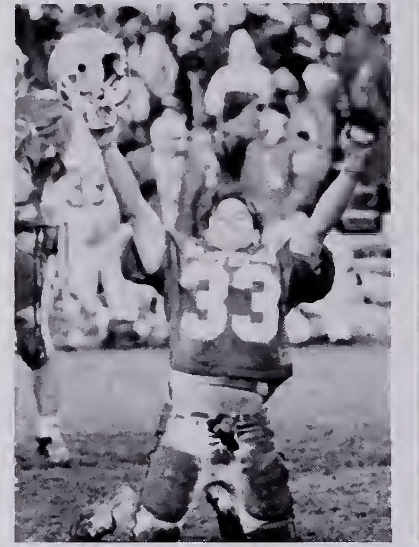
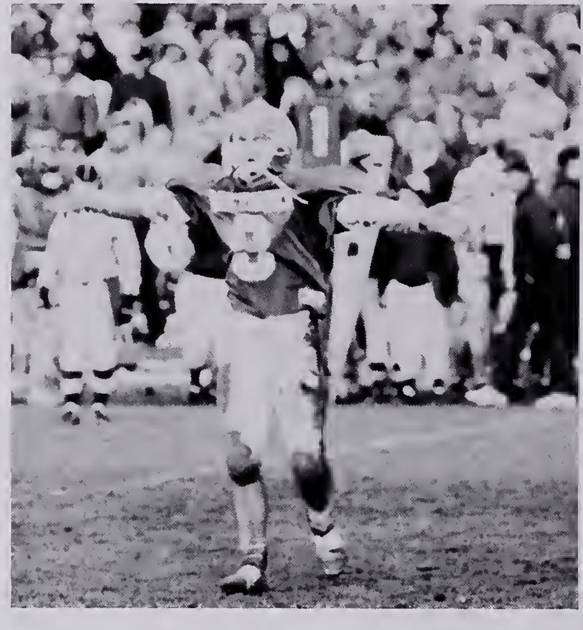
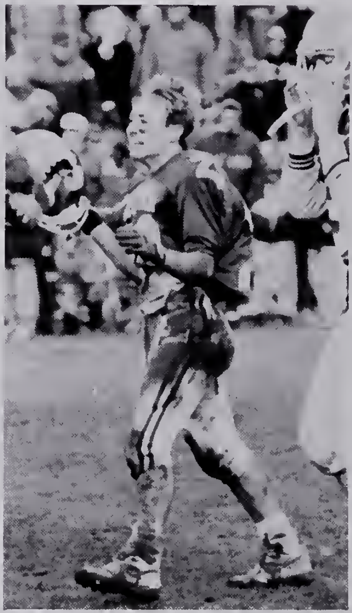
SUPERBOWL







Methuen hosted undefeated Reading in the first ever superbowl game held at Nicholson Stadium on November 7, 1992. The total team effort led to a 26-19 win over the previously unbeaten team. Congratulations to the Division IIA Champions, the Methuen Rangers, for a great season.

Game balls went to Lance Little (Andover), Joe Tavares and Mike Rickard (Chelmsford), Jason Burt (Wilmington), Chris Carney (Haverhill), Jeff Zanni (Lawrence), Jim Tamis (Lowell), Joe Pawlick (Central), and Brian Benoit (Reading). Joe Cerami and Jason Danella received the Andrew Haldane Award, Mark Graziano received the Outstanding Lineman Award, Peter Max received the Ziggy Feugill Award, and Shawn Mustapha and Craig McKenzie received the Clemente Bannano Award.

Highlights of the swim team's season were the North Sectional Meet and the Mass. State Meet. The team sent five competitors to the sectional meet. Jen Bourassa and Beth Ferland competed in the diving. Beth, Kerri Smith, Chrisann Sevoian, and Isobel Burke swam in the 200yd medley and freestyle relays. Beth, Chrisann, and Isobel swam individual events as well. The freestyle relay, which placed fourth, qualified for the state meet where it placed 15th and set a new school record. Isobel represented Methuen in the 50yd and 100yd freestyle events and shattered school records in both.

You want to see hard work and dedication? Just look at this year's field hockey team. Under the leadership of tri-captains Jalon Fowler, Lori Jankowski, and Lori Furey, the team finished off the season with two wins including one against Andover (it was the first time Methuen beat them in five years) and managed a tie against undefeated Tyngsboro. Fowler received M.V.P. honors, while Jankowski received the Betty Barret Award.

BOYS SOCCER

This year's soccer team, known for its aggressive style, produced many fine players. Seniors and captains Orazio Finocchiaro and John McGhee were the leaders of the team while Frank Chiola, William LaFlamme, Chris Forgione, and Brian Collins completed the lively senior roster. McGhee, who was named the team's M.V.P., played on the Merrimack Valley All-Star Team. Junior Vasco DeMello received the honor of being named to the All-Conference All-Star Team.

GIRLS SOCCER

After several years of absence, the girls soccer team returned . . . with a vengeance? No, as junior varsity. Due to the lack of upper classmen, the team did not play at the varsity level and as such ''No one even knew we had a team?'' lamented senior Cindy Raymond. Even so, the team worked and played well together. All next year's team needs is it's returning members and a few fans to cheer them on. No excuses, now you know we have a soccer team!

BOYS CROSS-COUNTRY

This year's boys cross-country team had a record of 2-8, and though not the team's best record, Coach King had a lot of positive things to say about the team. He was impressed with the team's chemistry and their ability to keep improving as the season progressed. King also said that every runner should feel proud of his individual accomplishments. The team was led by seniors Ellis Hall and Aaron Silverwatch, both of whom won All-M.V.C. Small School All-Star honors. Seniors Chirag Patal and Carl Khalil kept the team in high spirits with their lively senses of humor.

GIRLS CROSS-COUNTRY

Seniors (L-R) Bethany Grasso (C.), Brandee Burnes (C), Remmy Ibraheem

(Back L-R) D. Ladd, D. Charity, H. Evans, F. Douglas, J. Shamberger, M. Bova (Front L-R) J. Gingras, B. Burnes (C), B. Grasso, (C), R. Ibraheem, K. Jankowski

This year's team had the talent but not the numbers to give the girls a winning season. Captains Bethany Grasso and Brandee Burnes were the leaders of the team — Grasso was the team's model runner and Burnes offered support and guidance to all, even though injuries sidelined her. Senior Remmy Ibraheem, though primarily a sprinter, proved that she was a true athlete through her many fine performances. Grasso made a name for herself not only in the halls of Methuen High School, but in the Merrimack Valley Conference as well — she was named an M.V.C. Small School All-Star.

GOLF

This year's golf team had a season that was unprecedented in the history of the Methuen High School Golf Team. The team went undefeated with a 14-0 record and captured the M.V.C. Small-School Title. Seniors James Doherty, Kevin Ricci, and Richard Ouellette led the team to their many victories. The three seniors were honored by being named All-M.V.C. Golfers. Doherty set another school record by going 10-0-1 for the season. It's predicted that next year's team will fair well under the leadership of David Weagle and Tim Ouellette, both of whom were named Lawrence Eagle Tribune All-Stars.

FALL CHEERLEADING

The 1992-93 Varsity Cheerleading squad, led by captains Melissa Markey and Christina Bergeron, had an outstanding season from the start. At camp the team won the Top Team Award and a bid to the national competition in Dallas, Texas. The squad also consisted of three All-Americans, including Melissa Markey, Trina Tobacco, and Amy Beaulieau. The year was filled with much enthusiasm and the winning of the Superbowl made it especially memorable.

GIRLS VOLLEYBALL

The girls volleyball team improved from last year to end the season with a 7-11 record. They earned respect in their league by winning tough matches against Billerica and Haverhill. This year's captains, Tracy Novak and Tracey Sunderland, along with Amy McQuilken and Diane Mowatt were selected for the M.V.C. All-Star Team. Tracey Sunderland was the team's M.V.P., Tracy Novak received the Coaches' Award, and Elaine Samaris was the Most Improved Player.

WINTER CHEERLEADING

Once again the cheerleading squad's efforts were a success. After a long football season, the cheerleaders still had plenty of spirit left for basketball. The squad's enthusiastic cheers and formations, no doubt, helped the boys to capture the M.V.C. Small School Title. Although the team had its ups and downs, captains Melissa Markey and Christina Bergeron insured that they all performed well together as a squad. Katie Danahy was named as the most improved cheerleader and Melissa Markey was named the M.V.P.

The girls gymnastics team began their season with a new coach, Kevin Gendreau. The team's consistency was due to senior veterans and captains Jennifer Bourassa and Robin Beeley, as well as next year's captain Jaime Lane. For the first time in 13 years, the team went undefeated, capturing the MVC dual-meet championship. The team also had a strong 7th place finish at North Sectionals. Also claiming an undefeated season was senior Robin Beeley. She captured the MVC League, North Sectional, and State Championship titles. At the state meet, Robin won floor, vault, and balance beam. She also left her mark on the MHS record board — 37.6 all around, 9.55 beam, 9.7 fx, 9.3 vault, and 9.35 bars.

BOYS BASKETBALL

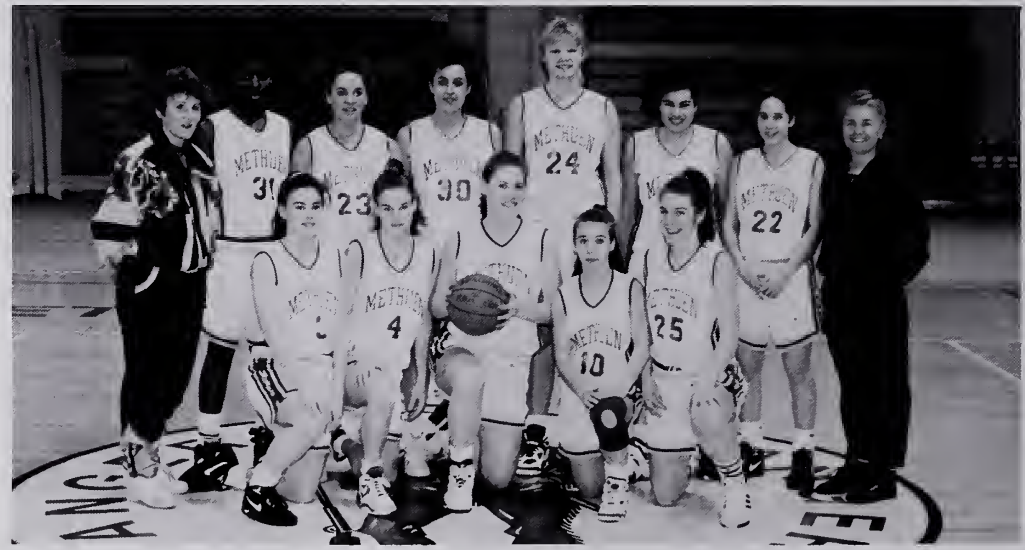
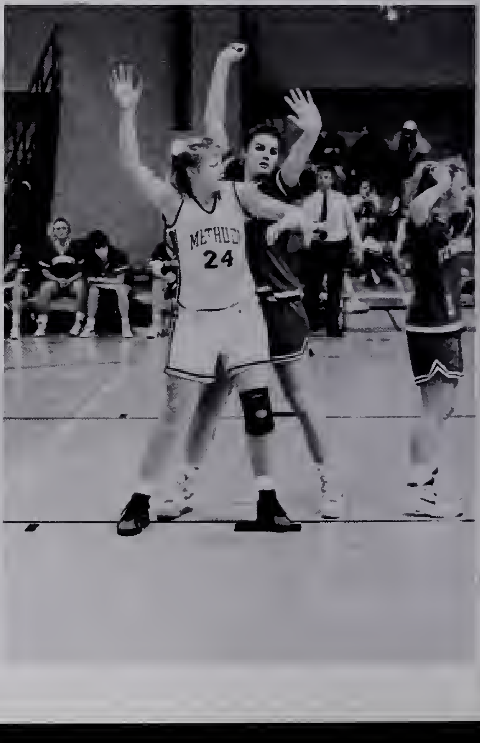
The boys' season started off on a bad note when senior John Feugill broke his elbow during the first minute of the first game of the season. The season ended much better, though, when the team clinched the M.V.C. Small School Championship title by finishing 14-8 with a win over Tewksbury. Bob Ruggerrio (C.) was named Small School M.V.P. and All-Conference All-Star, while Eric Denise (C.) and Juan Torres were named to the M.V.C. All-Star Team. Team awards were given to Ruggerrio (M.V.P.), Denise (Coaches Award), Joe Pagnoni (Most Improved), and Matt Curran (Bruce Blood Memorial Award for most assists).

GIRLS BASKETBALL



Back (L-R) K. McLaughlin, D. Mowatt, L. Jankowski, C. Briggs, J. Cassidy, A. Moran, K. Giglio, Mimi Hyde-Stott.
Front (L-R) M. Stewart, Michelle Dailey, E. Soley, C. Tavares, K. Kineen.



The girls' basketball team once again won the MVC Small School Championship with a record of 13-7. Captain Erin Soley and her assistants Michelle Dailey, Kelly Kineen, Megan Stewart, and Christina Tavares led the team while the playing of seniors Courtney Briggs and Lori Jankowski added to the success of the team. The girls had tough competition this year, but the season was ended prematurely with a loss to Lexington in the first round of the state tournament. Basketball fans should expect great things next year from this young team.

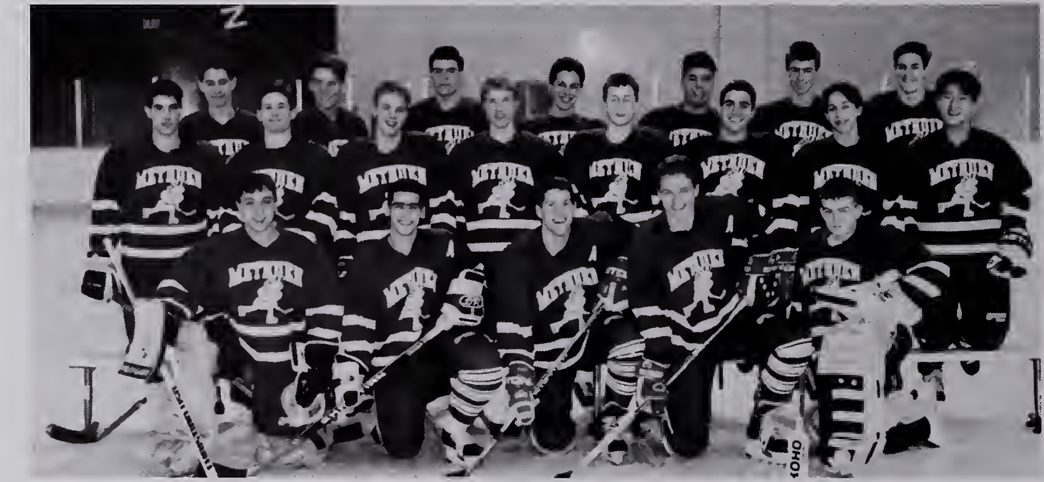
With familiar faces such as Brian Collins and captains Frank Chiola, and Lance Little returning for a fourth season, the Methuen wrestlers captured another winning season (24-5). The three seniors and junior standout Rafael Brito once again earned a spot on the M.V.C. All-Star Team. Unfortunately, the post-season won't hold fond memories for these seniors; Collins and Chiola left the sectional tourney via ambulance and Little lost a heartbreaking 4-2 decision in the semifinals.

HOCKEY



Back: Barry, O'Hearn, K. Ricci, Roukes, Cox, Grelle, L'Italian Middle: Morgano, K. Dube, M. Dellechaie, J. Doherty, C. Harris, Dubiel, Cagliuso, Kwon Front: Pomerleau, C. Simoes, M. Kobrenski, R. Ouellette, T. Marsh

The hockey team made it to the first round of the state tournament and finished their season 15-4-3. Leading the team were tri-captains Rich Ouellette, Chad Simoes, and Mike Kobrenski. Seniors Kevin Ricci, Jim Doherty, Mark Dellechaie, and Chris Harris also had fine seasons while Kevin Dube and Tim Marsh made great contributions coming off the bench. The team won the Nashua Invitational Holiday Tournament and set a school record for winning 16 games straight. Ted Dubiel, Dave O'Hearn, Jeff Morgano, and goalie Sean Pomerleau were selected to be in the Small School All-Star Game. Also selected as All-Stars were Ouellette, Simoes, and Ricci. Hardworking sophomores Brett Cagliuso and Jeff Roukes proved that they will be key players to look for next year.

GIRLS SKIING

"The Methuen girls did what?" That's what area coaches said when three skiers from Methuen qualified for the state meet this year. The three, senior captain Beth Ferland, junior captain Amy McQuilken, and freshman standout Kerry Nason, were also regular placers in the league's top 10. Nason went on to qualify for the New England Championships at Gunstock. Also skiing well were seniors Miranda Mushow and Lotte Rasmussen, and junior Renée Biancardi. Overall, the team skied well and ended the season at 4 and 6.

BOYS SKIING

An accident early in the season sidelined one of Methuen's best skiers, Shane Pierce, for the entire season. Fortunately, the team could count on the abilities of its remaining three seniors, Will Allat, Chris Carney and Billy LaFlamme, to gain some recognition for the team. The three frequently placed in the top 10 in their races and Carney and LaFlamme were named as Lawrence Eagle Tribune 2nd Team All-Stars. Next year, the team can expect to see some dazzling skiing from captains-elect Keith Pierce and Troy Bergeron.

BOYS WINTER TRACK

The 1992-1993 winter track season was another success for the Rangers. Ellis Hall, Joel Coppeta, Craig Mackenzie, and Jeff Zanni captained the team to a respectable 4-4 record. Aaron Silverwatch was dominant in the mile and the mile relay posted the best time in the league. Chosen as Merrimack Valley All-Stars were: Ellis Hall, Joe Pawlick, and Jason Burtt. Up-and-commers are freshman Jeff Anselmi in the hurdles and sophomore Jeff Ferland in the distance events.

GIRLS WINTER TRACK

The girls track team won yet another M.V.C. Small School title for Methuen this year by going 6 and 0 against its small school competitors. The efforts of tri-captains Chrisann Sevoian, Lorna Mathieu, and Bethany Grasso, and junior Rita Gallant were integral to the success of the team. Mathieu and Gallant were named All-Conference Performers for their respective sprinting and throwing abilities. The 4x200 relay team of Sevoian, Ibraheem, Mathieu, and Joy Conely scored a victory at the Class A State Relay Meet. Sevoian's individual feats should also be noted. The holder of multiple school records, she hurdled all the way to New Englands where she placed fourth.

BASEBALL

The team finished off it's regular season with a 9-12 record, scoring wins against Central Catholic, Haverhill, Chelmsford, Lawrence, two against Dracut, and three against Tewksbury. One of the most charged games of the season was against Dracut, in which the Rangers trailed 14-1 but made a spectacular comeback in the sixth inning, scoring 14 runs off of 12 hits, to jump ahead 15-14. A continued effort in the final innings sealed the victory . . . and a slice of the M.V.C. championship title. Awards went to Joel Coppeta (M.V.P.), Brian Benoit (Coaches Award), and Mike Kobrenski (highest hitting average).

SOFTBALL

Had it not been for injuries, the softball team might have improved upon their 9-11 record. Christina Tavares and Melissa Ventrillo were sidelined for the season, while Melanie Klier and Tara Nolet were forced to play with injuries. Despite those obvious setbacks, the team did manage to shine, producing three All-Stars (Lorie Jankowski, Jalon Fowler, and Michelle Dailey), and two All-Conference players (Jalon Fowler and Michelle Dailey). Other awards were given to Tammy Schubert (Coaches Award), Rachel Campbell (Most Improved), and Jalon Fowler (M.V.P.).

The Rangers fell one meet short of the M.V.C. title in a dramatic loss against Tewksbury. Captains Ellis Hall, Joe Cerami, and Joe Pawlick ''ran'' the team, as fellow captain, Jason Burtt, paved the way in the throwing pits. Lance Little, Mark Graziano, and Jeff Zanni threw their hearts into their events, while the quartet of Brian Collins, Aaron Silverwatch, Carl Khalil, and Chris Frogione went the distance. Chris Carney tried to pole vault his team to victory, while Jason Danella did everything (and every event) he could to aid the Ranger's cause.

GIRLS SPRING TRACK

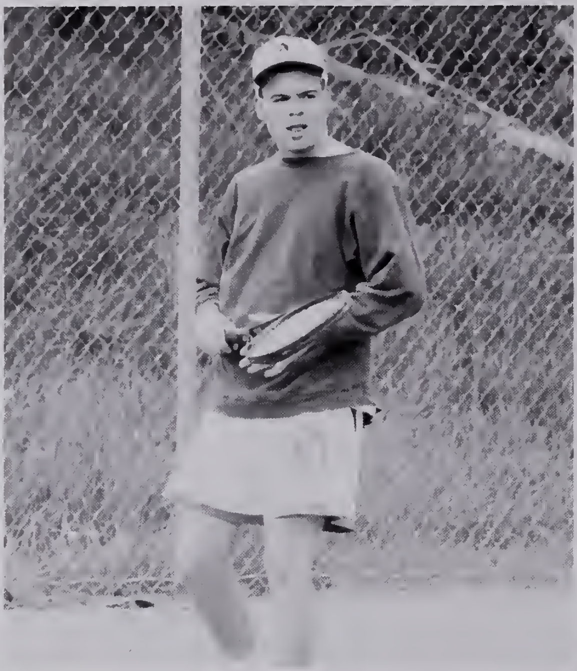
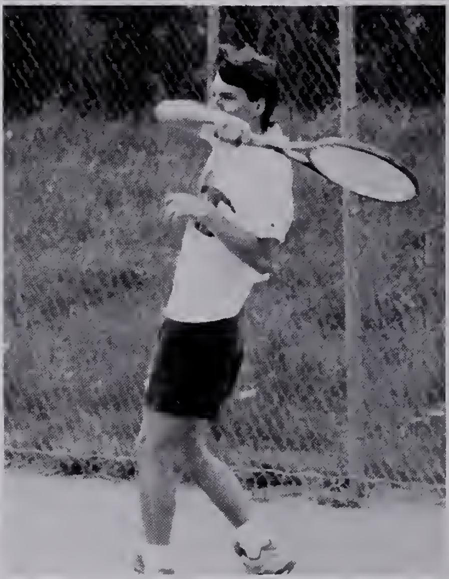
The season finished with the team being M.V.C. Champions with a 6-0 record. Add to that the fact that the 4x100 relay team of Chrisann Sevoian (C.), Lorna Mathieu, Kelly Kinneen, and Diane Mowatt were state champs . . . and set a meet record . . . and Sevoian repeated as the 100 meter state champ and you can see just how great this year's team was. Sevoian went on to place 3rd at All-States and 4th at New Englands. Erin Soley (C.) won the discus at the Andover invitational for the second year and placed 6th at All-States. Lorna Mathieu, Remmy Ibraheem, and Bethany Grasso also deserve recognition for their high-caliber performances at the state meet and throughout the season.

BOYS TENNIS





Their 3-13 record was far from stellar, but the boys' tennis team did make some strides this year. Kevin Ricci, the team's co-captain, M.V.P., and first singles player proved he was a mighty force to contend with in the Merrimack Valley. Richard Ouellette, the other captain of this young team, improved his game by leaps and bounds to be named the teams' Most Improved Player. Lac Nguyen, quick and dangerous on the court, completed the senior roster. Next year with the leadership of such players as David Carrol (Coaches Award) and Brian Kobrenski, the team looks forward to winning some more matches and improving their record. A hint though . . . start doing some major recruiting!

GIRLS TENNIS

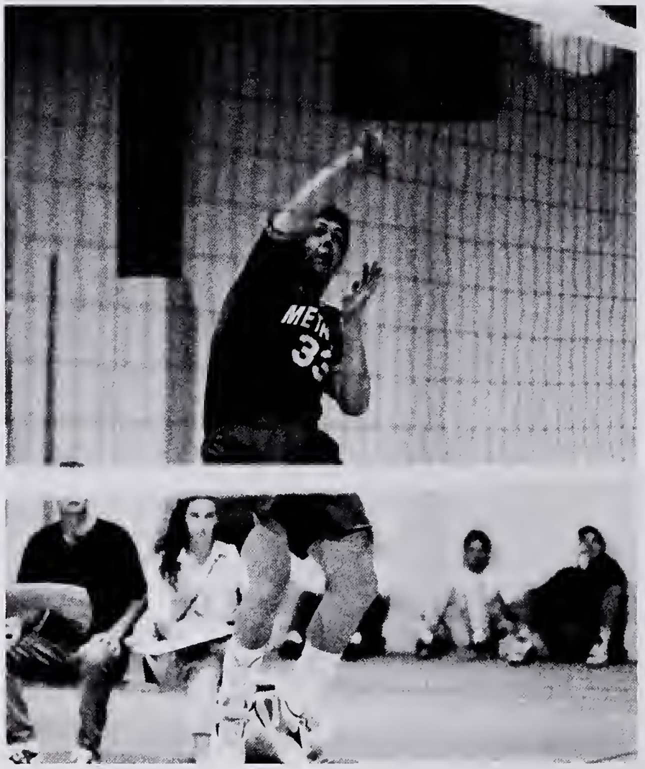
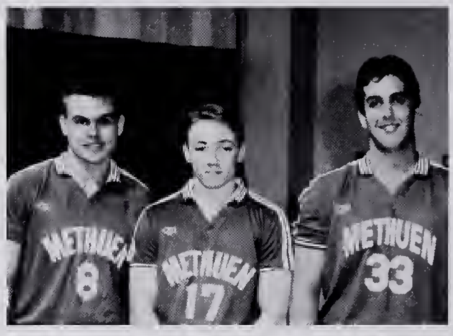
After a rough season last year, the girls' tennis team proved that they had found the key to success this year. Captains Tracey Sunderland and Elaine Samaris along with fellow seniors Jen Kuchar and Allison Lynch played strongly all year long and were integral to the team's first 5-0 sweep of a team in four years. The unlucky team was Tewksbury — just one of the 4 teams to be beaten by Methuen this season. Lisa Metropolis played first singles and Jill Packard and Isobel Burke played first doubles. Tracey Sunderland and Nicole White played 2nd and 3rd singles respectively, while Elaine Samaris, Allison Lynch, and Jen Kuchar all played in 2nd doubles spot. Lynch received the Coaches Award, Packard the Most Improved, and Sunderland the M.V.P.

BOYS VOLLEYBALL





The boys' record fell to 4-11 under the guidance of rookie coach Mark Blanchet. The team also had to contend with loosing five starters from the previous year. Nonetheless, proudly leading this year's team were captains Troy Couture, Kevin Donohue, Craig Richard, and fellow senior Scott Bettano. On a positive note, Troy Couture was named as a 2nd team All-Scholastic player and Scott Bettano was named as an M.V.C. All-Star. The two were also named as the team's M.V.P. and Most Improved Player, respectively, while sophomore Mike Jutras received the Coaches Award.

M.V.C. CHAMPS!!!

Football

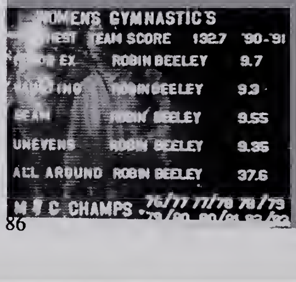
The football team was the toast of the town when they captured the M.V.C. crown. They got a lot of attention, but it was well deserved. Their hard work and dedication paid off and they were able to win a title for themselves and "Uncle Larry" to be proud of.

Girls B-Ball

The girls basketball team is a perennial power and this year was no exception. Captain Erin Soley and seniors Lori Jankowski and Courtney Briggs can be given much of the credit for the team's success. The underclassmen though, including sophomore standout Christina Tavares, were integral to the working of the team and should not be forgotten.

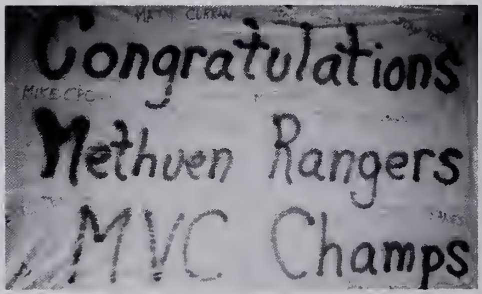
Gymnastics

The girl's gymnastic team was a pleasure to watch this year, thanks to the talents of seniors Robin Beeley and Jennifer Bourassa. The team went undefeated on it's way to capturing the M.V.C. Title. The post season was nice too, as Beeley wrecked havoc at the state meet and walked away with four state titles.



Golf

Unlike their classmates on the football team, the golf team didn't get the credit they deserved. So here goes . . . ATTENTION EVERYBODY — THE GOLF TEAM WON THE M.V.C. SMALL SCHOOL TITLE AND HAD AN UNDEFEATED 14-0 RECORD. Well, boys, I hope that did you justice.



Spring Track

The girls spring track team deserves a big round of applause. They captured the M.V.C. Title with an unbelievable 6-0 record. Everyone contributed to the teams success. Congratulations to the 4x100 relay team of Chrisann Sevoian, Lorna Mathieu, Diane Mowatt and Kelly Kinneen who set a meet record and became state champs. Sevoin also was state champ in the 100 meter. Also seniors Bethany Grasso, Beth Ferland, Erin Soley and Remmy Ibraheem all deserve a ton of credit.

Indoor Track

Girls indoor track, under the direction of Coach Blood, won a title as well. Thanks to the efforts of seniors Chrisann Sevoian, Bethany Grasso, Lorna Mathieu, Remmy Ibraheem, Jessica Crafton, Jalon Fowler, and Jill Ouellette. The 4X200 relay team of Sevoian, Ibraheem, Mathieu, and Joy Conely was also state champ.

Boys B-Ball

Boys basketball matched it's female counterparts this year by scooping a M.V.C. Title as well. Tired of being overshadowed, the boys . . . er men . . . rose to the occasion and won some games when it counted. Now that they have gotten a taste of victory, what will the future hold? A battle of the sexes? Wait and see!

Baseball

Even though the salutatorian inadvertently snubbed the baseball team at graduation and left them out when mentioning the list of team which had clinched M.V.C. titles, the team can rest easy. They will now be remembered for eternity as being one of the 1992-1993 teams that won an M.V.C. Title. This team didn't know the meaning of the words "give up." They didn't give up when they were behind 14-1 in the 6th inning and came back to win the game and the title!

On Novemer 6, 1992, the crowning of this year's Homecoming Queen took place. Despite the cold weather, the stands were packed to watch the event. The excitement of the evening reached it's climax when Rachel Troia was crowned the "Class of 1993 Homecoming Queen" by last year's runner-up queen Kasia Januszewski. Miss Troia was escorted by senior class president Brian Collins; her court consisted of first runner-up Jen Bourassa, second runner-up Melissa Markey, and third runner-up Rebecca Baldwin. For the queen and her court, it was a night that they will never forget. CONGRATULATIONS!

BLOODMOBILE

POWDER PUFF FOOTBALL

This year's Powder Puff Football game was held in the field house due to inclement weather. The senior girls, coached by Craig Richard emerged from the playing "field" with a 6-0 victory over the underclassmen, who were coached by Frank Chiola. The one and only touchdown of the game was scored by Chrisann Sevoian aided by great blocking from Jill Ouellette. The cheerleaders proved to be more of a spectacle than the players, as they entertained the crowds with dancers, cheers, and pyramids.

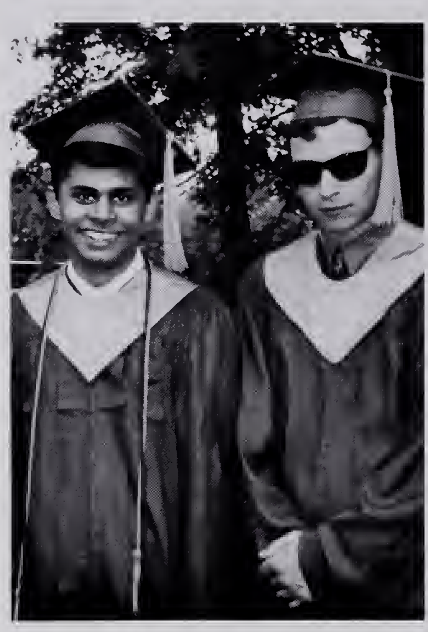
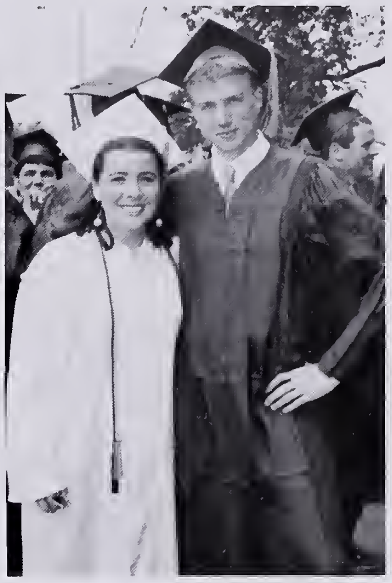
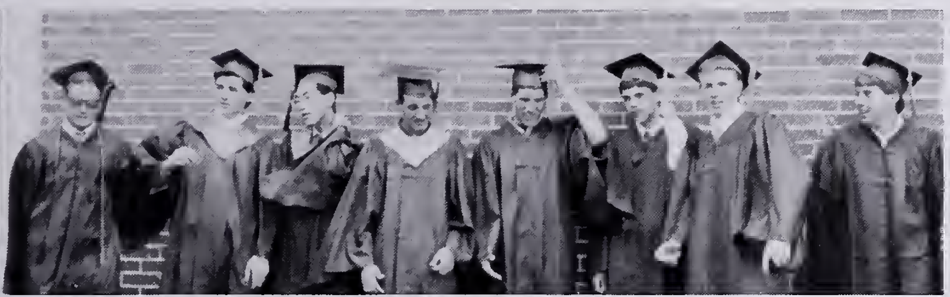
GRADUATION



June 5, 1993





". . . It takes a great deal of courage to do what is right. Only the coward goes along with the crowd against his better judgment. Like the lion, you will have to live with yourself if you lack the courage to stand by your convictions . . . Listen to your heart. Let yourself love and be loved, for it is a very lonely world if you don't. . . As you leave the grounds of Methuen High, remember to always follow you own yellow brick road . . ." Erin Soley ~ Valedictorian

". . . I'm not going to tell you to be successful, if you think that success means you have to become a doctor, make $200,000 a year and show up in a Porsche at the ten year reunion. Instead, I am telling you to have pride. If you have pride in your work, then no matter what you do, how much money you make, or what kind of car you drive, you will be successful. To prove to you taking pride in your results in success, you must look no further than your own classmates . . ." Beth Ferland ~ Salutatorian

". . . The world is like a giant canvas, laying, waiting, for the brush of an artist to convey to its emptiness color, vibrance and life . . . Although each of us will paint a different picture we will have captured the actions of one another and incorporated them as a source of inspiration . . ." Jennifer Kuchar ~ Honor Essayist

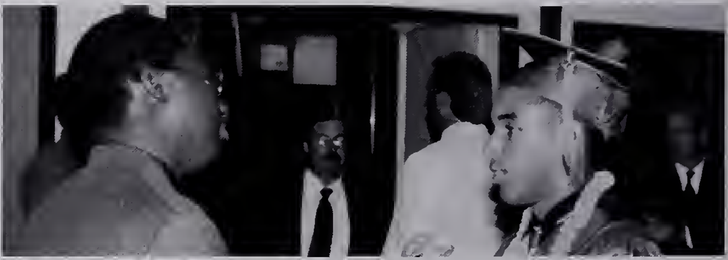
A SPECIAL GRADUATION June 7, 1993

Ellis receives his diploma from school-comittee member Giglio

Chrisann receives her diploma from school-committee member Zanni



Two Methuen grads celebrated their graduation on June 7, instead of June 5, like their classmates. Instead of at Nicholson stadium, the location was Boston . . . at the WEEI Sports Radio station to be exact. The two grads were Ellis Hall and Chrisann Sevoian, both of whom are on the track team and popular members of their class. Being the fantastic athletes that they are, both qualified for the All-State track meet that was scheduled for . . . you guessed it . . . June 5, the same day as graduation. For different reasons, both chose to attend the track meet. For Ellis, there was scholarship money riding on his performance at the meet. For Chrisann, one of the top hurdles in New England (she placed fourth at the New England Championships), the All-State meet and the New England meet, for which one must qualify at All-States, are the pinnacle of four years of hard work, dedication, and sacrifice. That is no cliché either . . . I have personally witnessed the hours Sevoian has spent perfecting her event (mostly without coaching) as well as the injuries sustained in her attempt to do so. The choice was still not an easy one for either of the two to make — they and their families regretted the fact that they would have to miss their graduation. So, when sports radio personality Jimmy Myers learned of their plight, he invited them and their families to a celebration to be held at the radio station. Valedictorian Erin Soley (who attended the meet as well, but was able to make it back in time for graduation) and Class President Brian Collins were also invited to the event to read some of their speeches. Julie Rourke, who missed her own graduation last year for the same reason, and Remmy Ibraheem, who qualified for the meet but decided to attend graduation, also went. Everyone who went traveled in style (in chauffeured Limos) to Boston, where they were greeted by Channel Seven News and Jimmy Myers who presented flowers and gifts to Chrisann and Ellis. After receiving their diplomas and celebrating at the station, the whole procession then traveled to Manchester where a club owner had invited the whole entourage of graduates, family, and friends to a party. Entertainment was provided by Ellis's father and his band called Project Insight; their music a mix of blues, jazz, rock, and funk. Although these athletes would have no doubt liked to participate in their own graduation, a great time was had by all on this special evening and it will be a memory that they will cherish forever.

And in my heart you'll always stay Forever Young
Forever Young
May good fortune be with you
May your guiding light be strong
Build a stairway to heaven
With a prince or a vagabond
And may you never love in vain
And in my heart you will remain Forever Young
Forever Young
And when you finally fly away
I'll be hoping that I served you well
For all the wisdom of a lifetime
No one can ever tell
But whatever road you choose
I'm right behind you win or loose
Forever Young . . .
Forever Young

To: #2 Kid + Sister:

Now we'll Find out what it's like not to be rushed out of the bathroom in the morning so you can do your "do" in the mirror.

Congrats!!

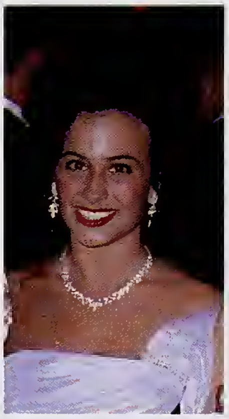
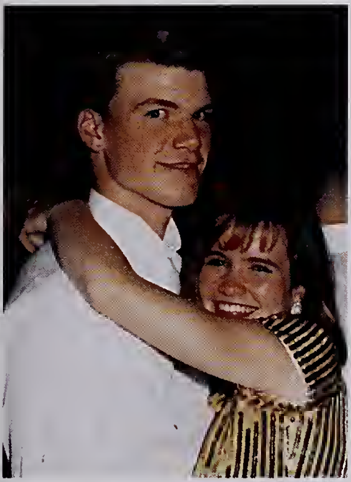
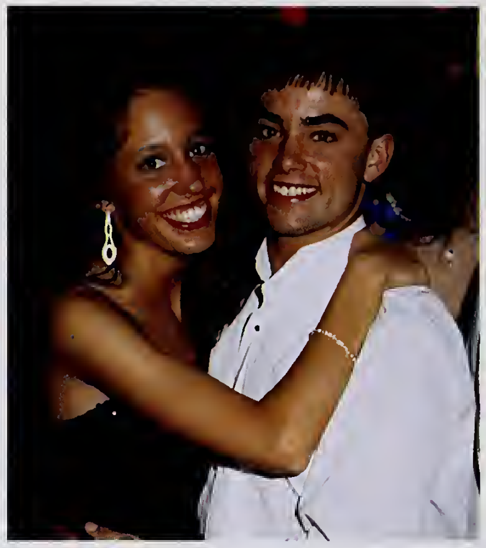
Why Can't This Night



Go On Forever?





Class History

I'm sure that we all remember our first day as freshmen at Methuen High School. No one knew what to expect and everyone was more than a little nervous. There was only one thing of certainty as we entered the halls of Methuen High for the first time; we were about to begin the best years of our lives.

The year was 1989. Our freshman class was led by President Lorna Mathieu and Vice President Erin Soley. Other class officers were, Melissa Ventrillo as Secretary and Lara Pitochelli as Treasurer. After a tough adjustment period, we finally made it to grade 10.

By sophomore year many of us joined in one or more of the extra-curricular activities that are offered at M.H.S. Many of our classmates even participated in varsity sports. Lori Jankowski, Lara Pitochelli and Erin Soley were lucky enough to be part of the team that made it to the Boston Garden parquet.

Academically, we flourished as well. The National Honor Society's latest inductees were Beth Ferland, Gregory Naffah, Elaine Samaris, Erin Soley, Gina Ford, Miranda Mushow, Robin Beeley, Dina Dellicolli, Jennifer Kuchar, Christine Leone, Cathy Fiorilla, Jalon Fowler, Melissa Grieco, Carl Khalil, Chirag Patel, Chrisann Sevoian, and Allison Lynch.

Our class officers this year were Kevin ''Cheezy'' Donahue — president, Craig Richard — vice president, Lorna Mathieu — secretary, and Gina Ford — treasurer.

Finally we became upperclassmen. Grade 11 held a whole new array of experiences for us. By this time, most of our class athletes were varsity participants. One of the highlights of this athletic year was Chrisann Sevoian becoming state champion in the 110 hurdles and Robin Beeley becoming state champ on the beam. All Conference football stars were Joe Cerami and Mark Graziano. New Honor Society members were Michelle Rivera and Jason Goebel. Class officers were Kevin ''Cheezy'' Donahue performed again as president, Craig Richard again assumed the role of vice president, Jenn Bourassa stepped in as class secretary, and Gina Ford remained treasurer.

Senior Year. Our football team started the year off with a bang. Led by captains Mark Graziano, Joe Taveras, Joe Cerami, and Jason Danella, the M.H.S. Rangers won the M.V.C. championship and went on to win the Division II A Superbowl. During one of the games, we chose a Homecoming Queen. To no one's surprise, Rachel Troia was awarded the crown. Runners up were Jenn Bourassa, Melissa Markey, and Rebecca Baldwin. Our golf team was equally amazing as the football team. Rich Ouellette, Kevin Ricci, and Jim Doherty led the team to a most impressive undefeated season and an M.V.C. Championship. Field Hockey, though not as outstanding, did yield Jalon Fowler as an All-Conference goalie. The volleyball team made a dramatic comeback and improved their scores from 0-18 to 7-11 by their senior year. Congratulations to Tracey Sunderland, Elaine Samaris, Tracey Novak, Danielle Riopelle, and Erin Soley for such a turnaround.

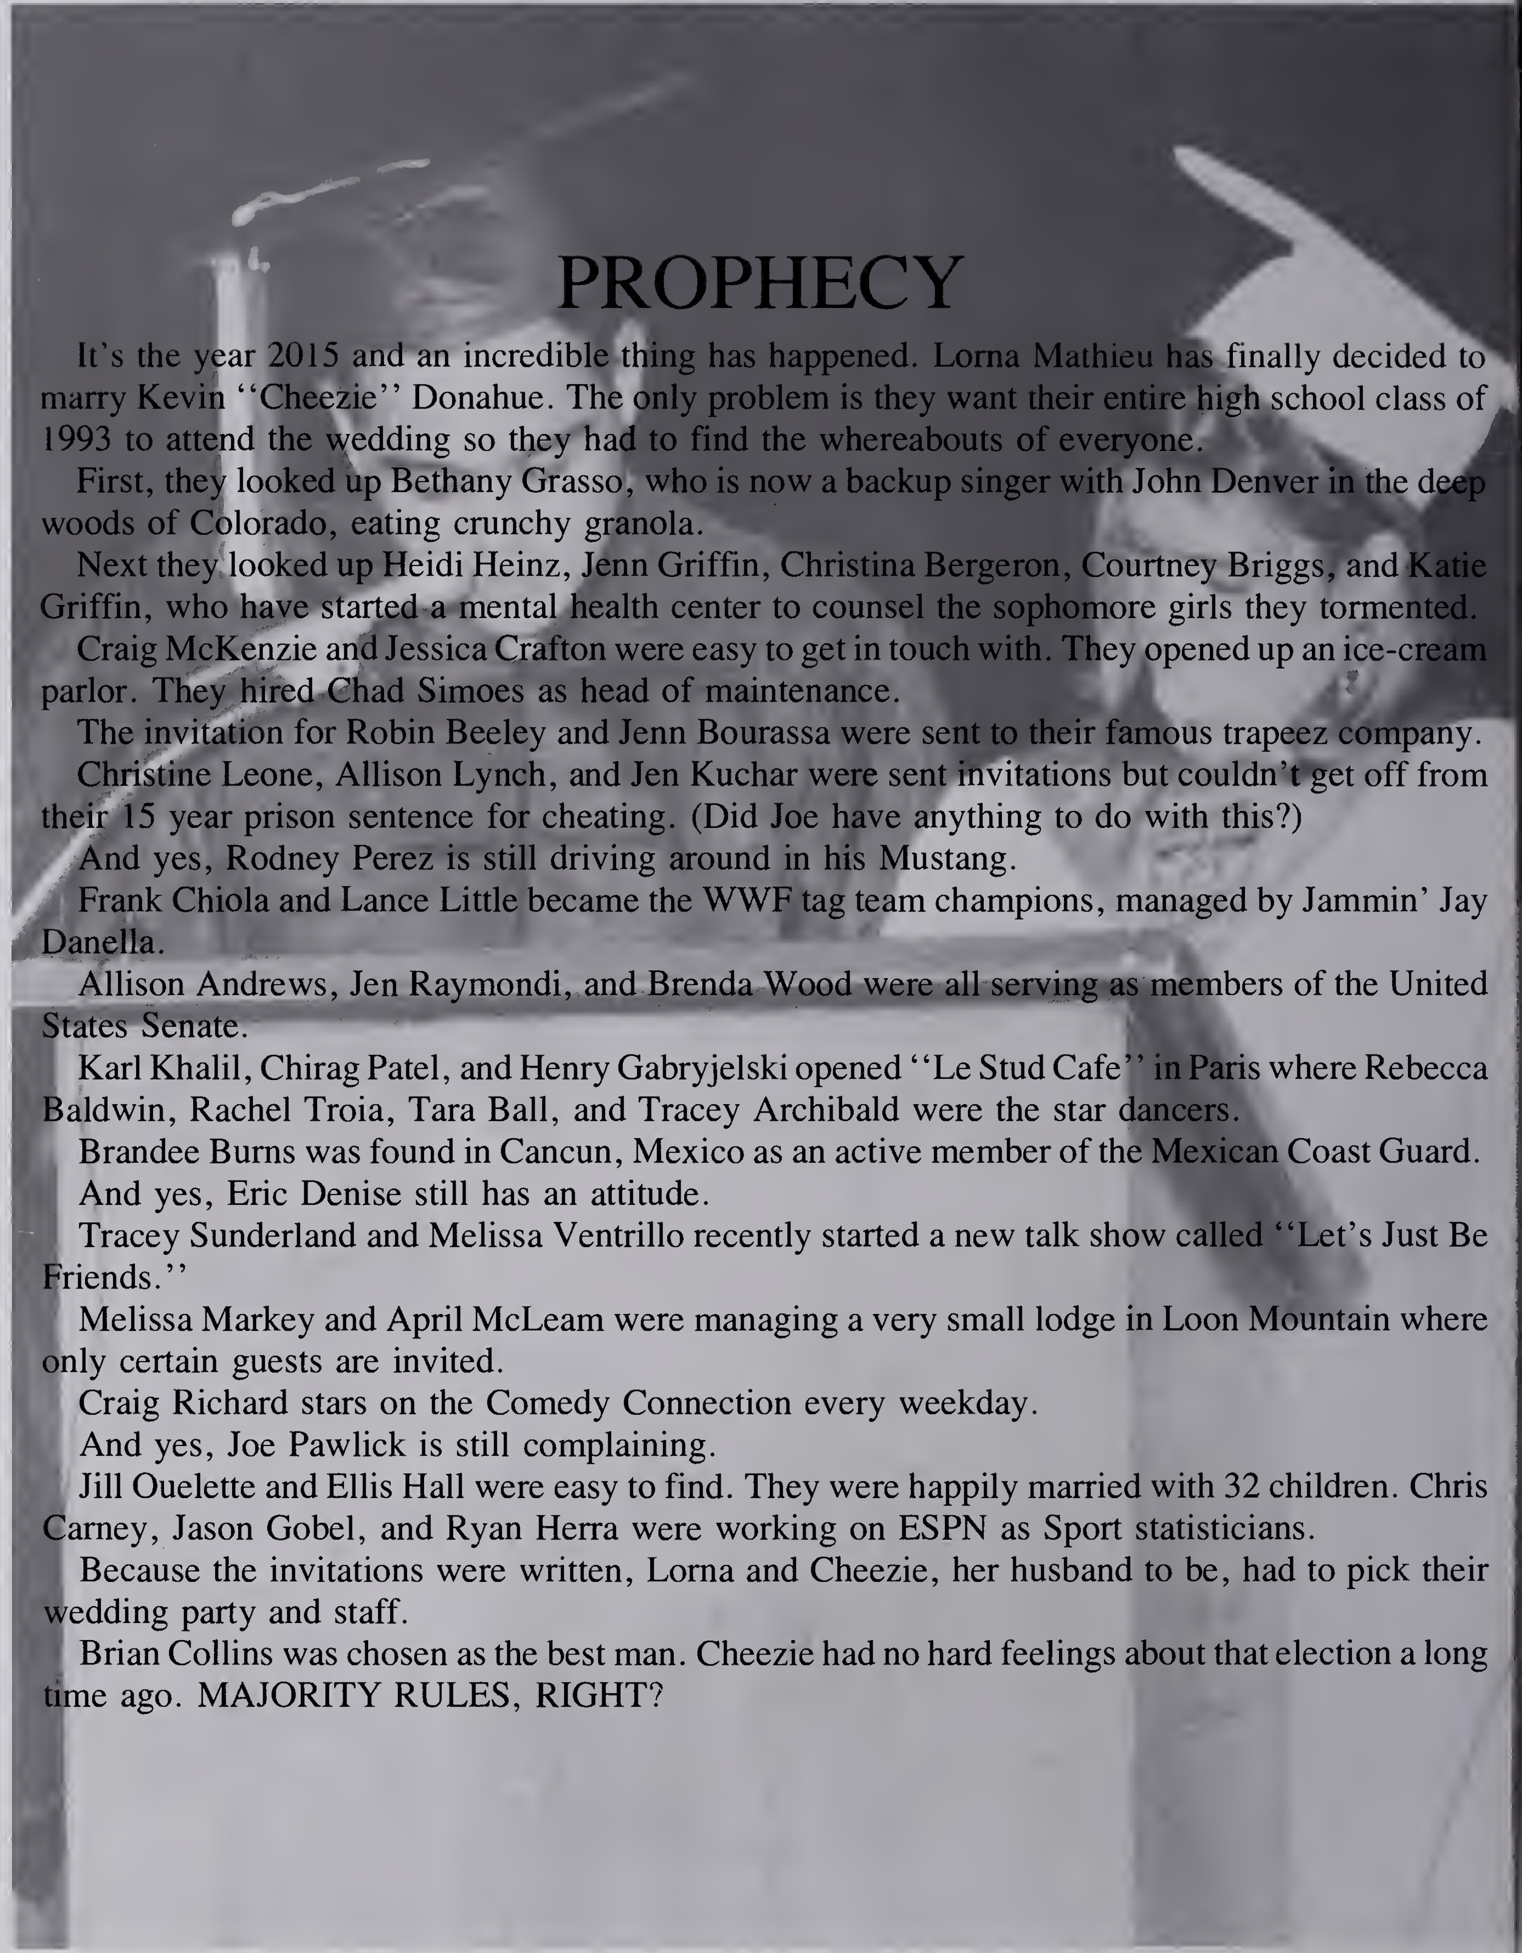
The winter season was just as successful. Both boys' and Girls' basketball teams won M.V.C. Small School Championship titles. The boys were led by captains Joe Cerami and All-Star Eric Denise. The girls' captain was Erin Soley. Courtney Briggs and Lori Janowski also played an intricate part in the team's success. The girls' track team also acquired an M.V.C. title. As for hockey, the boys just missed a championship by one game. All-Stars included Rich Ouellette, Kevin Ricci, Chad Simoes, Mike Kobrenski, and Mark Dellichai. Gymnastic star, Robin Beeley, reined as state all-around champ.

The class play, ''The Clumsy Custard Horror Show,'' also occurred in the winter season. Emmy winning performances were given by Sabrina Autieri, Ben Hellman, Eric Bateman, Gina Ford, Amy Cornellier, Brain Collins, and Cortney Mustapha.

Spring sports kept Methuen's victories alive. Our baseball team won the M.V.C. Small School title with an unprecedented 10 run comeback in two innings to win over Dracut. The battle was led by Joel Copetta, Mike Kobrenski, Jim Tamis, and Jeff DiPrima. Once again the track team was something to be proud of. They went 6-0 to win the M.V.C. crown. Bethany Grasso, Chrisann Sevoian, Erin Soley, Remmy Ibraheem, Loana Mathieu, and Beth Ferland were standouts for the team. The girls' softball team had a great record considering the number of injuries and setbacks they encountered. Seniors included Jessica Crafton, Cortney Mustapha, Lori Jankowski, Danielle Riopelle and All-Star captain Jalon Fowler.

Scholastically we were still striving. Senior inductees to the Honor Society were Brian Benoit, Jin Kwon, Lac Nguyen, Theresa Piazza, and Chin Yu.

Looking back on all the things that we, as a class, have accomplished is something to be proud of. Now only graduation stands between us and the real world. Some of us are going to college while others will find their place in this world through other outlets. Regardless of what this outlet will be, one thing is for certain, good or bad, we will all remember the friends we made, the memories we shared, and the things we achieved at Methuen High.



PROPHECY

It's the year 2015 and an incredible thing has happened. Lorna Mathieu has finally decided to marry Kevin ''Cheezie'' Donahue. The only problem is they want their entire high school class of 1993 to attend the wedding so they had to find the whereabouts of everyone.

First, they looked up Bethany Grasso, who is now a backup singer with John Denver in the deep woods of Colorado, eating crunchy granola.

Next they looked up Heidi Heinz, Jenn Griffin, Christina Bergeron, Courtney Briggs, and Katie Griffin, who have started a mental health center to counsel the sophomore girls they tormented.

Craig McKenzie and Jessica Crafton were easy to get in touch with. They opened up an ice-cream parlor. They hired Chad Simoes as head of maintenance.

The invitation for Robin Beeley and Jenn Bourassa were sent to their famous trapeez company.

Christine Leone, Allison Lynch, and Jen Kuchar were sent invitations but couldn't get off from their 15 year prison sentence for cheating. (Did Joe have anything to do with this?)

And yes, Rodney Perez is still driving around in his Mustang.

Frank Chiola and Lance Little became the WWF tag team champions, managed by Jammin' Jay Danella.

Allison Andrews, Jen Raymondi, and Brenda Wood were all serving as members of the United States Senate.

Karl Khalil, Chirag Patel, and Henry Gabryjelski opened ''Le Stud Cafe'' in Paris where Rebecca Baldwin, Rachel Troia, Tara Ball, and Tracey Archibald were the star dancers.

Brandee Burns was found in Cancun, Mexico as an active member of the Mexican Coast Guard.

And yes, Eric Denise still has an attitude.

Tracey Sunderland and Melissa Ventrillo recently started a new talk show called ''Let's Just Be Friends.''

Melissa Markey and April McLeam were managing a very small lodge in Loon Mountain where only certain guests are invited.

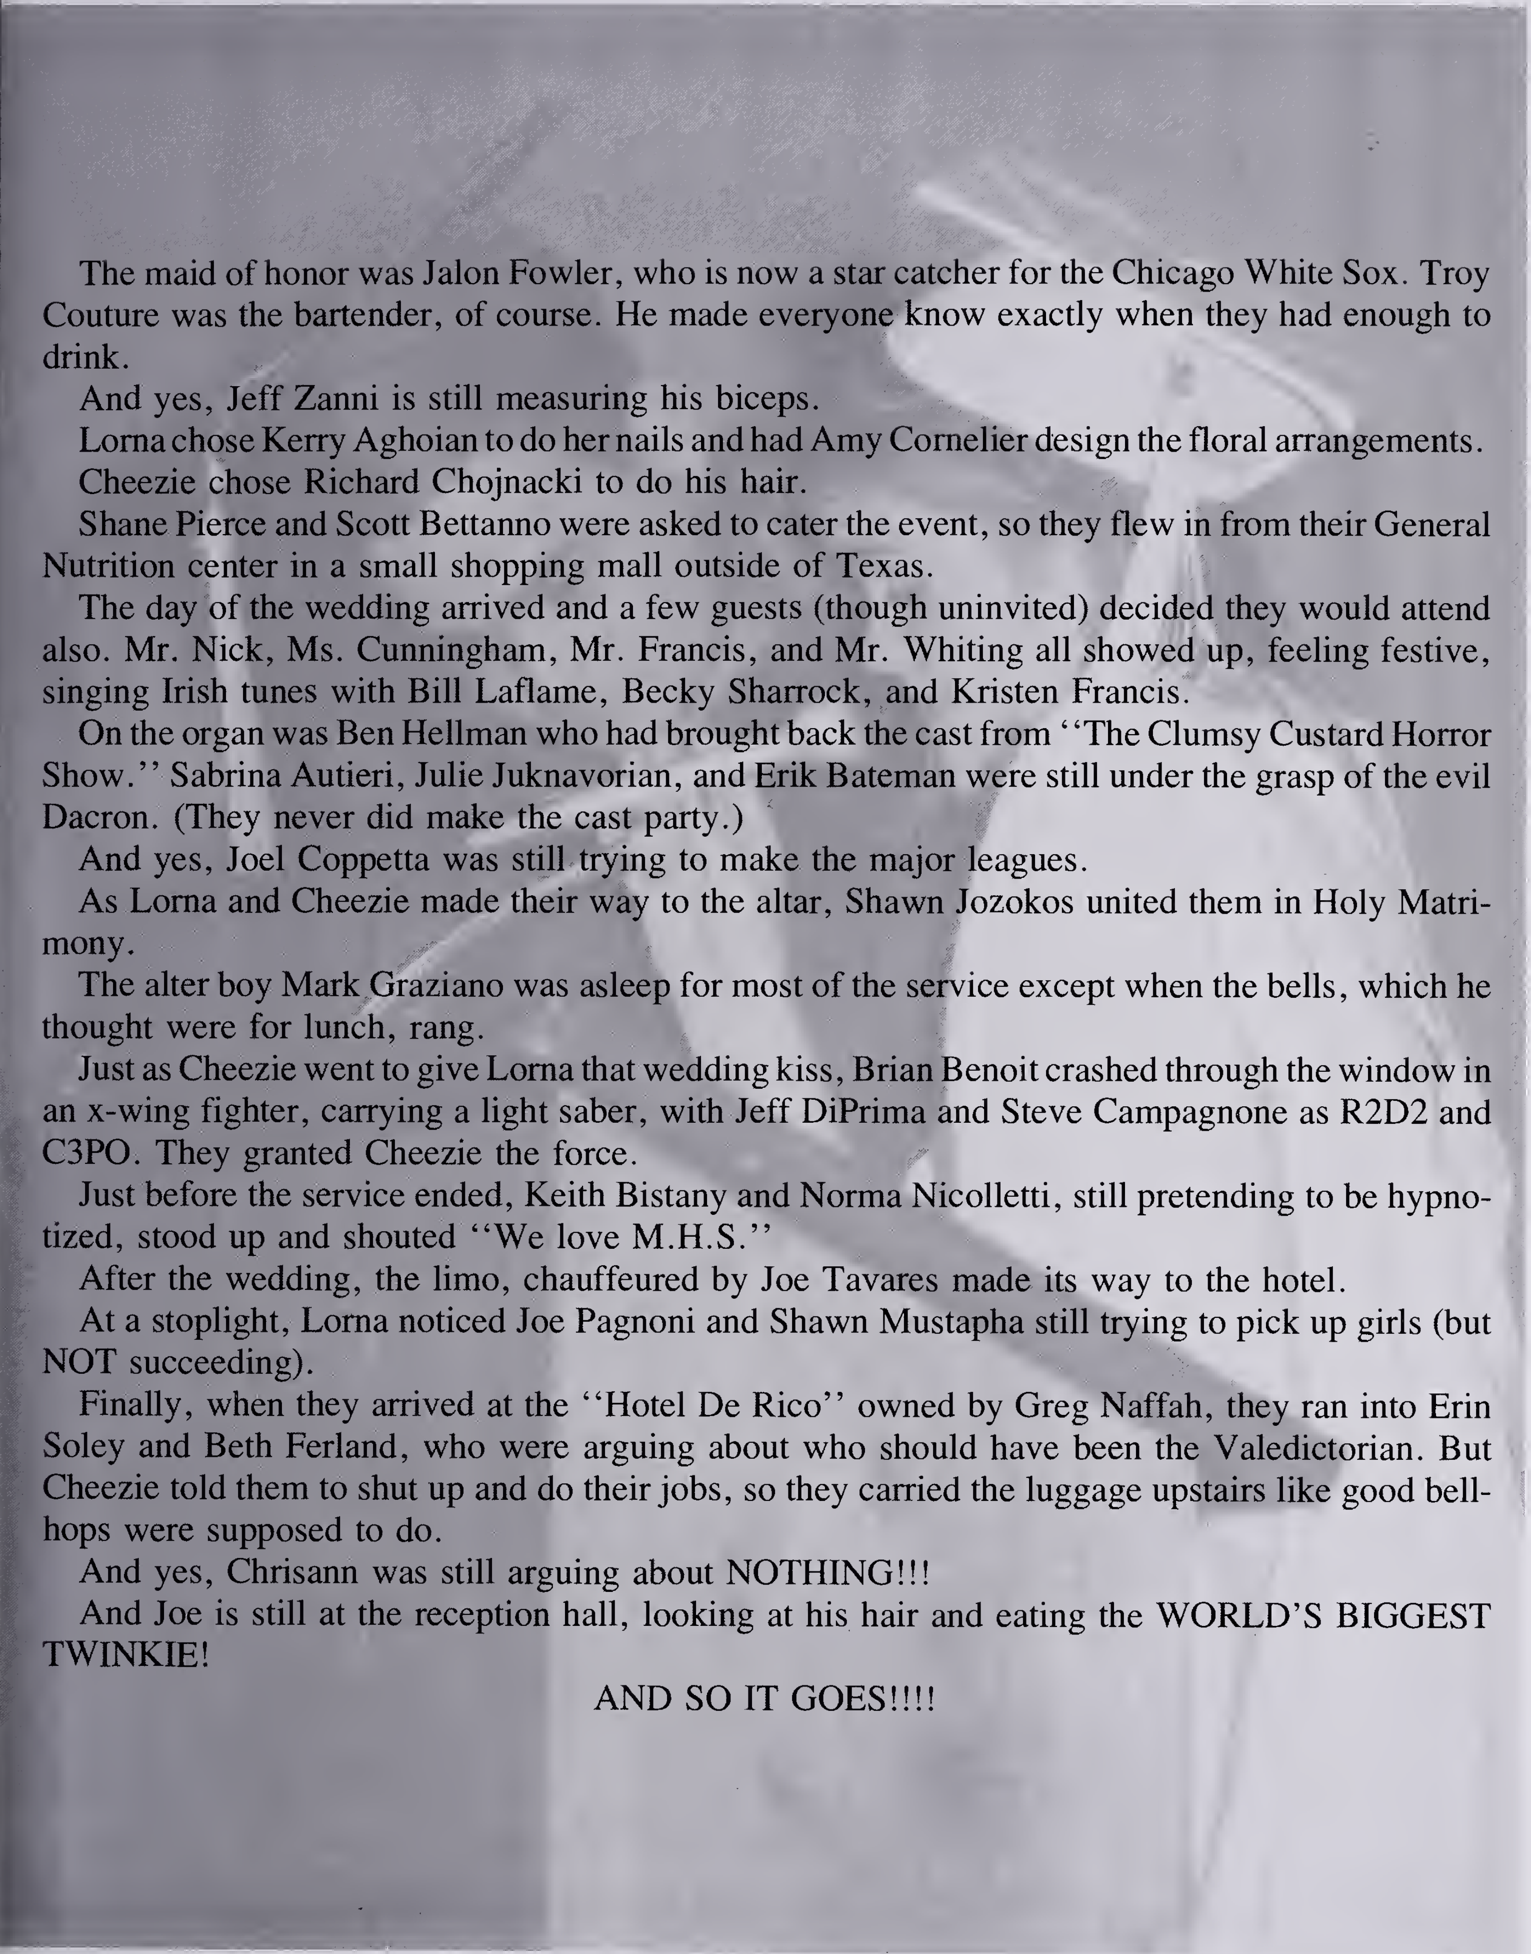
Craig Richard stars on the Comedy Connection every weekday.

And yes, Joe Pawlick is still complaining.

Jill Ouelette and Ellis Hall were easy to find. They were happily married with 32 children. Chris Carney, Jason Gobel, and Ryan Herra were working on ESPN as Sport statisticians.

Because the invitations were written, Lorna and Cheezie, her husband to be, had to pick their wedding party and staff.

Brian Collins was chosen as the best man. Cheezie had no hard feelings about that election a long time ago. MAJORITY RULES, RIGHT?



The maid of honor was Jalon Fowler, who is now a star catcher for the Chicago White Sox. Troy Couture was the bartender, of course. He made everyone know exactly when they had enough to drink.

And yes, Jeff Zanni is still measuring his biceps.

Lorna chose Kerry Aghoian to do her nails and had Amy Cornelier design the floral arrangements.

Cheezie chose Richard Chojnacki to do his hair.

Shane Pierce and Scott Bettanno were asked to cater the event, so they flew in from their General Nutrition center in a small shopping mall outside of Texas.

The day of the wedding arrived and a few guests (though uninvited) decided they would attend also. Mr. Nick, Ms. Cunningham, Mr. Francis, and Mr. Whiting all showed up, feeling festive, singing Irish tunes with Bill Laflame, Becky Sharrock, and Kristen Francis.

On the organ was Ben Hellman who had brought back the cast from ''The Clumsy Custard Horror Show.'' Sabrina Autieri, Julie Juknavorian, and Erik Bateman were still under the grasp of the evil Dacron. (They never did make the cast party.)

And yes, Joel Coppetta was still trying to make the major leagues.

As Lorna and Cheezie made their way to the altar, Shawn Jozokos united them in Holy Matrimony.

The alter boy Mark Graziano was asleep for most of the service except when the bells, which he thought were for lunch, rang.

Just as Cheezie went to give Lorna that wedding kiss, Brian Benoit crashed through the window in an x-wing fighter, carrying a light saber, with Jeff DiPrima and Steve Campagnone as R2D2 and C3PO. They granted Cheezie the force.

Just before the service ended, Keith Bistany and Norma Nicolletti, still pretending to be hypnotized, stood up and shouted ''We love M.H.S.''

After the wedding, the limo, chauffeured by Joe Tavares made its way to the hotel.

At a stoplight, Lorna noticed Joe Pagnoni and Shawn Mustapha still trying to pick up girls (but NOT succeeding).

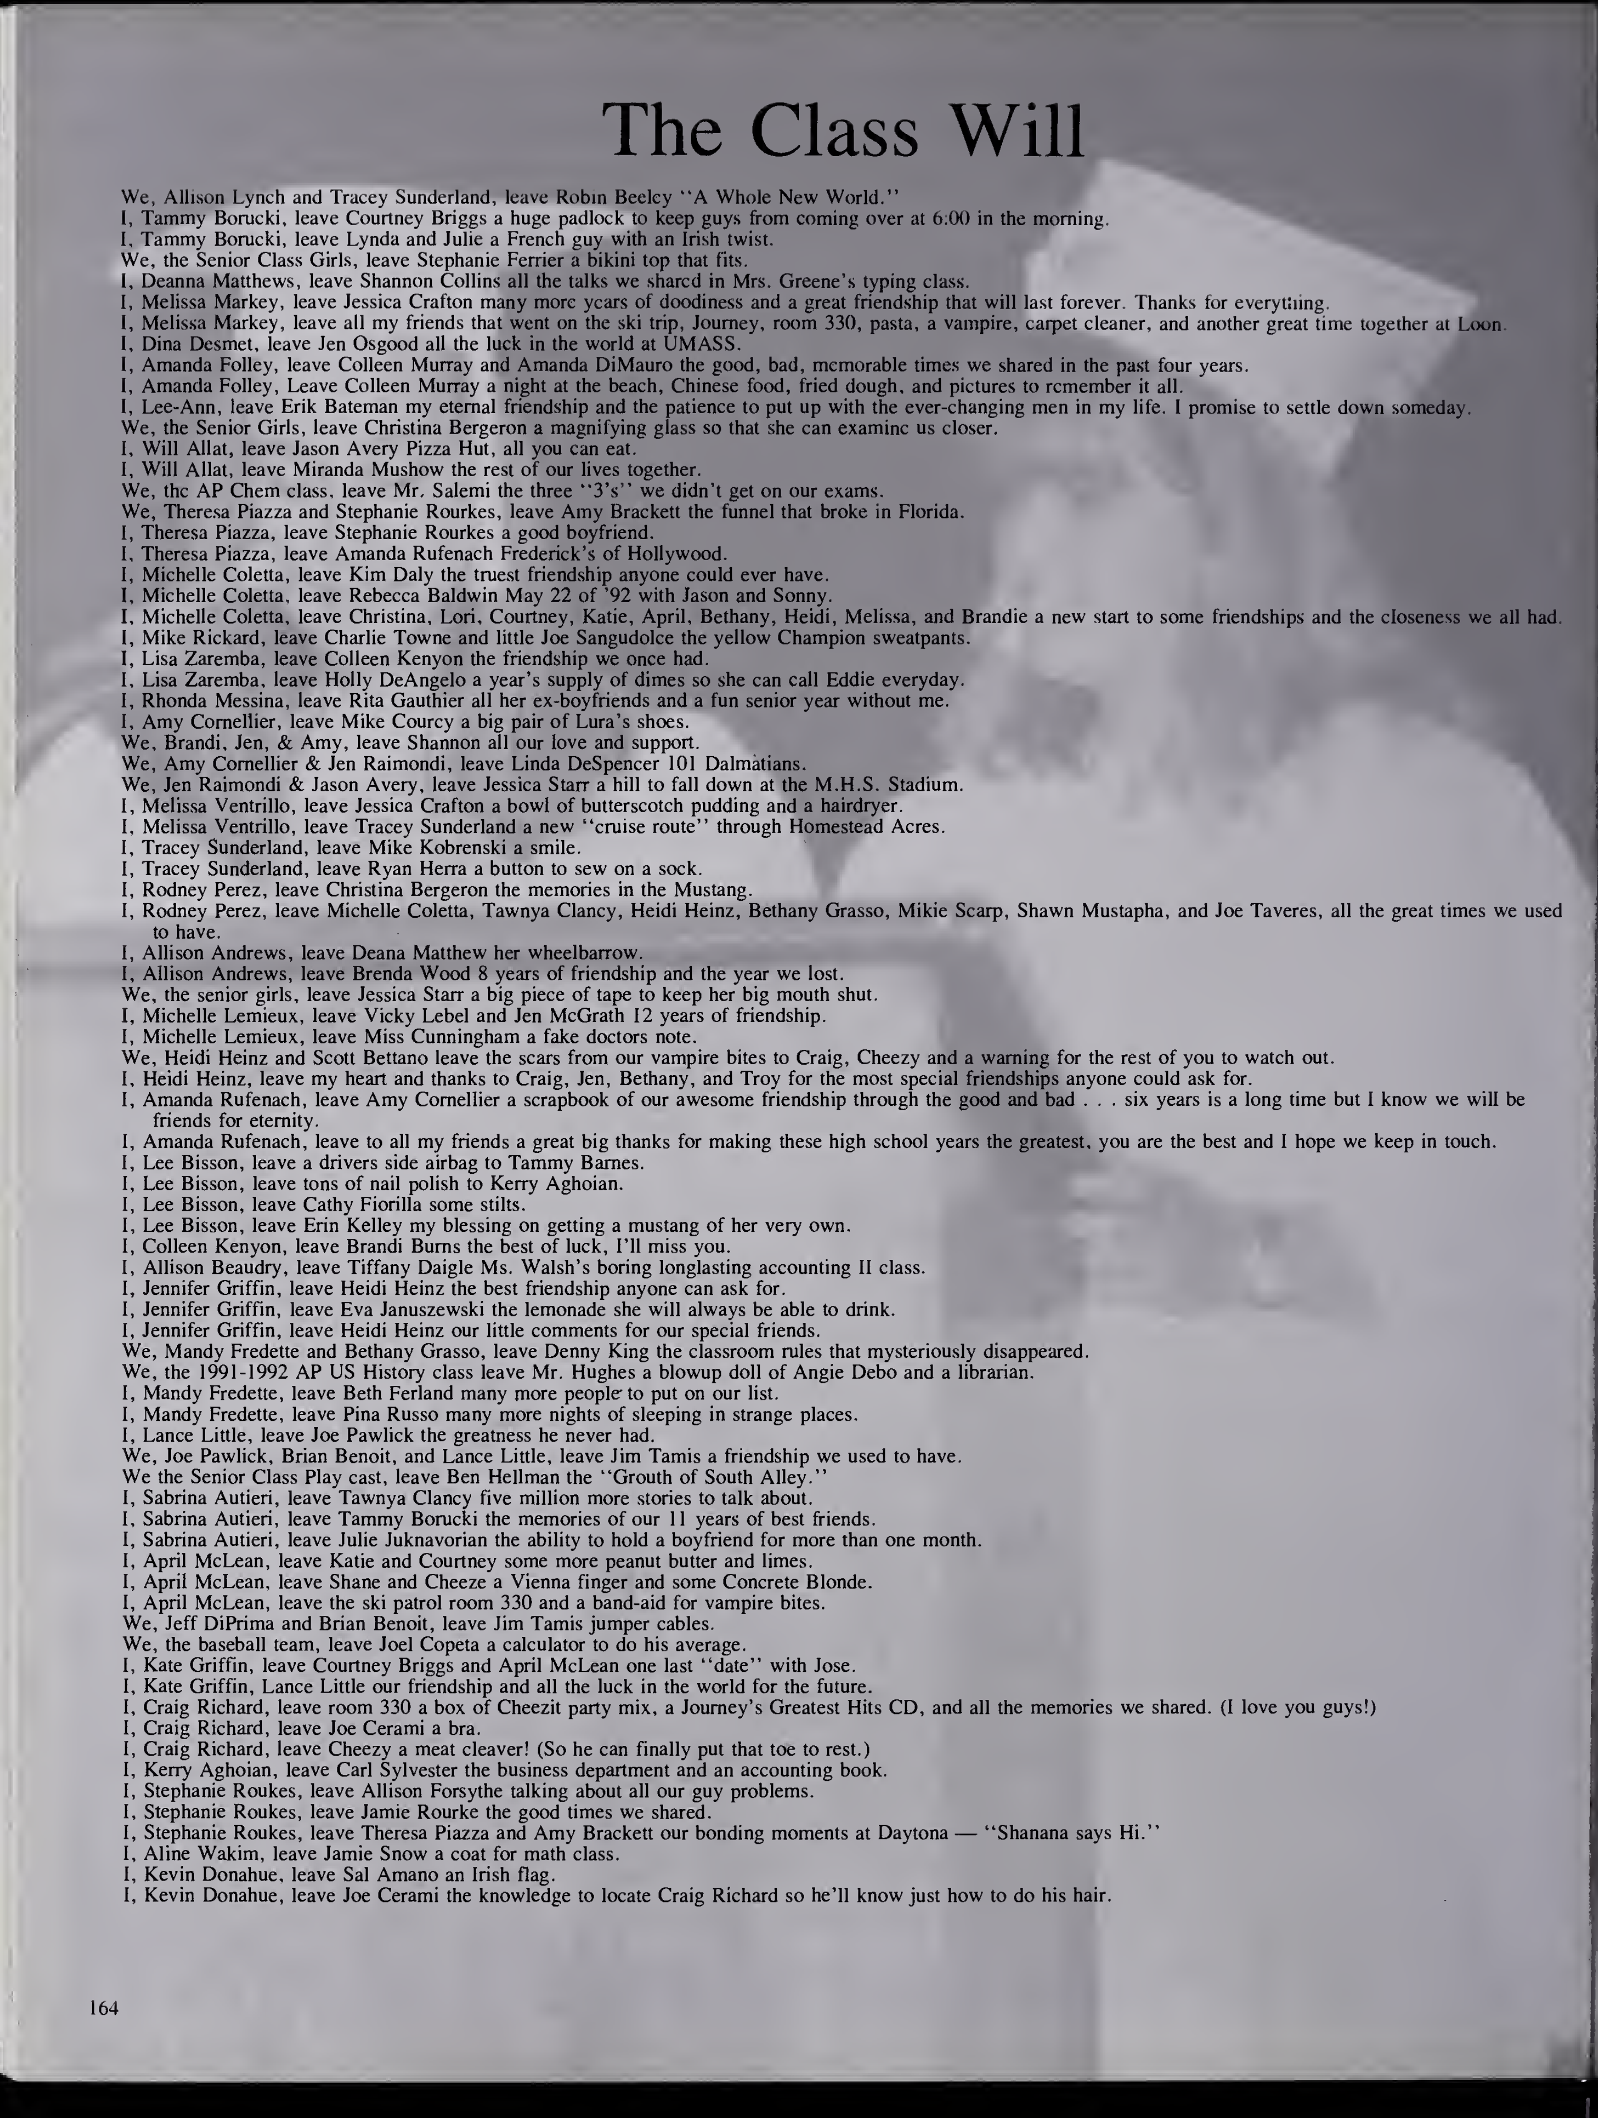
Finally, when they arrived at the ''Hotel De Rico'' owned by Greg Naffah, they ran into Erin Soley and Beth Ferland, who were arguing about who should have been the Valedictorian. But Cheezie told them to shut up and do their jobs, so they carried the luggage upstairs like good bellhops were supposed to do.

And yes, Chrisann was still arguing about NOTHING!!!

And Joe is still at the reception hall, looking at his hair and eating the WORLD'S BIGGEST TWINKIE!

AND SO IT GOES!!!!

The Class Will



We, Allison Lynch and Tracey Sunderland, leave Robin Beeley "A Whole New World."
I, Tammy Borucki, leave Courtney Briggs a huge padlock to keep guys from coming over at 6:00 in the morning.
I, Tammy Borucki, leave Lynda and Julie a French guy with an Irish twist.
We, the Senior Class Girls, leave Stephanie Ferrier a bikini top that fits.
I, Deanna Matthews, leave Shannon Collins all the talks we shared in Mrs. Greene's typing class.
I, Melissa Markey, leave Jessica Crafton many more years of doodiness and a great friendship that will last forever. Thanks for everything.
I, Melissa Markey, leave all my friends that went on the ski trip, Journey, room 330, pasta, a vampire, carpet cleaner, and another great time together at Loon.
I, Dina Desmet, leave Jen Osgood all the luck in the world at UMASS.
I, Amanda Folley, leave Colleen Murray and Amanda DiMauro the good, bad, memorable times we shared in the past four years.
I, Amanda Folley, Leave Colleen Murray a night at the beach, Chinese food, fried dough, and pictures to remember it all.
I, Lee-Ann, leave Erik Bateman my eternal friendship and the patience to put up with the ever-changing men in my life. I promise to settle down someday.
We, the Senior Girls, leave Christina Bergeron a magnifying glass so that she can examine us closer.
I, Will Allat, leave Jason Avery Pizza Hut, all you can eat.
I, Will Allat, leave Miranda Mushow the rest of our lives together.

I, Jenn Bourassa, leave my ''co'', Robin Beeley, the memories of 3 awesome gym seasons and one outstanding senior year and the best of luck next year.
I, Jenn Bourassa, leave Jill Oeullette enough money and the ability to get through the day without breaking something or falling.
We, Gina Ford and Erin Soley, leave Beth Ferland a 4-year supply of pacifiers so she can shut up anyone at Cornell who disagrees with her.
We, the AP English class of '93, leave Chris Carney, Jack Brown, and Greg Naffah 3 sows to love.
I, Beth Ferland, leave Chris my improved attitude, many apologies, and a ''straight'' path to follow at R.P.I.
I, Beth Ferland, leave Isobel Burke, A swim coach and the ability to break all the school records.
I, Beth Ferland, leave Greg Naffah Denny's and January 6th.
I, Joe Cerami, wish the best of luck and success to the future athletic teams at MHS — ''Win another Superbowl.''
I, Joe Cerami, leave Mark Graziano, Jay Danella, and the rest of the MHS football players and Pop Warner through high school the greatest memories of a lifetime.
I, Remmy Ibraheem, leave Ginny Gianni a stable relationship.
I, Remmy Ibraheem, leave Sheree Bashford a trillion dollar check for putting up with my attitude and still being a good friend — thanks buddy.
I, Remmy Ibraheem, leave Kerry Tombarelli a big thanks for giving me a ride to school every morning.
We, the college English 12 classes, leave Mr. Hallbauer a student who craves a deeper meaning of English literature.
I, Kim Daly, leave Michelle Coletta a friendship that will last a lifetime.
I, Brandee Burns, leave Bethany Grasso, Big Ben, Champion Lover, Tequila Slammers, Fat Mexican Boys, my car, tennis lessons, and a U-Haul full of Depends undergarments.
I, Jenn McGrath, leave Vicki, Michelle, Holly, Brenda, and Allison all the girl parties and more to come.
I, Jenn McGrath, leave Amy all the good times in accounting and a quieter laugh.
I, Amy Cornellier, leave Shannon Collins an ice-cold streak, Coke, and fries . . . also, 100 of my Prodigy letters for when Keith is on tour.
I, Amy Cornellier, leave Brandi Lambert, Jen Raimondi, and Shannon Collins memories of the best 4 or 5 years that anybody could have.
I, Chris Leone, leave Allison Lynch luck with men and some Midol.
I, Chris Leone, leave Sean Dogherty a new queen because ''he is the king.''
I, Chris Leone, leave Sabrina Autieri a director that likes her mood swings and someone to ''trow it in her'' . . . ''and a carrot.'' Also a fire alarm for her locker.
I, Tawnya Clancy, leave Kathie Rupkey the past 16 years of wonderful memories and many more to come.
I, Tawnya Clancy, leave Sabrina Autieri, AnnMarie Guy, Tammy Borucki, Jessica Crafton, Rebecca Baldwin, and Christy Caston all of our in-depth classroom conversations that will always be classical in my mind. I love you all.
I, Tawnya Clancy, leave Christina Bergeron, Michelle Coletta, Heidi Heinz, Bethany Grasso, and all the guys, and all my friends the memories of our journeys through the stadium and our nights of driving endlessly.
I, Sheree Bashford, leave Remmy Ibraheem a ten-year supply of sinus spray and a book on etiquette.
I, Sheree Bashford, leave Mrs. Moynihan a new fan club.
I, Erin Soley, leave Coach Stott my helmet and a lifetime supply of basketballs to whip at my head.
I, Erin Soley, leave Melissa Ventrillo and Tracey Sunderland patches so that they can patch up their friendship before they go to college.
I, Erin Soley, leave my friends my admiration, friendship, and stationary so that we will stay in touch.
I, Greg Naffah, leave all the girls in AP English all of their problems that I have had to listen to for the past 4 years about guys, make-up, underwear, and especially P.M.S. and cramps.
We, the girls of A.P. Chemistry, leave Ted Dubiel a thermometer with instructions.
I, Christine Yee, leave Heidi Fearing a year supply of chocolate chip cookies and some tainted with cyanide for your loved one.
I, Christine Yee, leave the AP Chemistry class a lifetime supply of foreign edible things.
I, Bethany Grasso, leave my front door open to all my friends with a plate of chicken cutlets waiting in my fridge.
We, room 201, oops, I mean 207, leave Charlie Towne a new pair of red shorts.
I, Bethany Grasso, leave April McLean and Heidi Heinz many fubar nights at UMass.
I, Tracy Novak, leave April McLean a shirt and a lifetime supply of beer.
I, Tracy Novak, leave Amanda Folley ''The Bet,'' many more times at Denny's, our interesting talks in Psychology, and Word Perfect.
We, Mr. Fiorentini's Psychology class leave him his stories.
We, Tracy Novak, Tracey Sunderland, Elaine Samaris, Danielle Riopelle, and Erin Soley, leave the volleyball team ''Erkel Power'' and backbone.
I, Lynda Arcidiacono, leave Tammy Borucki all the memories of the good times we had and our friendship that will last forever.
We, Lynda Arcidiacono and Tammy Borucki, leave David Corsetto a pack of gum and a month supply of better hair days.
We, Tammy Borucki and Lynda Arcidiacono, leave Robin Beeley the pact we never fulfilled but will this summer.
I, Jodie Sipsey, leave Jen Hamel a toilet plunger for anymore little accidents she may have in the girls bathroom.
I, Jodie Sipsey, leave Jill Packard many great memories of being stand partners and friends and a piccolo that will stay in tune.
I, Chris Frogione, leave Melissa Ventrillo a date with Mike Kobrenski.
I, Chris Frogione, leave Beth Ferland a new attitude.
I, Jen Raimondi, leave Ryan Provencher all the good memories of our 2 and a half years together.
I, Jen Raimondi, leave Amy Cornellier the memory of Active Attack.
I, Jen Raimondi, leave Craig McKenzie a pack of cigarettes for Mrs. Krusell's English class.
I, Amy Cornellier, leave Beth Ferland a hit from a tailpipe.
I, Elaine Samaris, leave Cortney Mustapha a lifetime supply of cars so she'll always have something to drive her dates around in.
I, Elaine Samaris, leave Tracey Sunderland a winning season.
I, Cortney Mustapha, leave Beth Fox a license to drive the wrong way down a one-way street, a fat-free Entemann's chocolate crumb cake, and a lifetime supply of Jeff's and Dennis's.
I, Robin Quinlan, leave Ariskelda Inoa an alarm clock so she can get to school on time for once.
I, Robin Beeley, leave Jenn Bourassa a American Pie and an orange tree.
I, Robin Beeley, leave Tammy Borucki and Lynda Arcidiacono a tape recorder to hear themselves giggling all the time.
I, Amy Brackett, leave Theresa Piazza and Stephanie Roukes the memories of our trip to Daytona Beach, Florida.
I, Amy Brackett, leave Amanda Rufenach the EGO tow truck from Maine.
I, Lori Jankowski, leave Christina, Katie, and Courtney the past years of friendship and many more good times.
I, Lori Jankowski, leave Christina Bergeron another road to park on.
I, Brian Collins, leave Jenn Bourassa a set of eyes that makes a non-successful attempt that hide my feelings within.
I, Brian Collins, leave the class of 1993 memories that stem not only from a yearbook, but from their hearts, of four years that I hope they shall never forget.
I, Brian Collins, leave Beth Ferland and emotional beat up doll so the innocent students at Cornell may be spared from her non-caring, stone-hearted wrath.
We, the senior class of 1993, leave Beth Ferland a cork — where she puts it and what she does with it is her own business.
We, the yearbook staff, leave Jason Danella an honorary position.

What Is The Meaning?

What is the meaning of high school?
Two simple words at a glance.
But in essence these words are complex,
Insuring hard work, struggle, and chance.

What is the meaning of growing up?
It could mean going from short to tall.
But anyone who has been challenged by high school,
Knows this isn't the meaning at all.

What is Methuen High School?
A place with books, pencils, and pens?
Or is it a place to mature,
While making precious memories and friends?

What is the Class of '93?
Another year within a closed book?
If you open the pages to our lives,
You will have another outlook.

The Class of '93 is fueled by hope,
To build a world that shows
Nineteen ninety-three is the year,
That opens a book that will never close.

The challenges the world will bring,
And the favors the world will ask,
Will be conquered, not just answered
By our powerful, determined class.
